

Long Term Missionary Job Description

My Father's Arrows ministry is looking for missionaries to serve as in parental roles (ideally a married husband and wife, but singles may apply), that identify with our core values and adopt our mission as their own. We are looking for high energy, responsible, flexible, nonjudgmental individuals. We need someone is capable of utilizing a nurturing and loving approach to provide boundaries and structure with the children. These missionary parents play a key role in our holistic philosophy of care by using a professional, team-oriented, and trauma informed approach in the care of our children. This couples calm and controlled demeanor is key for this job.

Our challenge as a team is to minister to the "whole" child; spiritual, physical, intellectual, creative, emotional, and social. This is a full-time position that includes a modest salary, full room and board, and a vehicle to drive. You will be serving children in foster care that have been removed from their biological families due to abuse, neglect, or abandonment. You can make a lasting impact on the life of a child. You will live on a rural farm with a close knit team of families working together to rebuild the lives of children who are in foster care.
